

BLACK WOMEN WIDOWS
EMPOWERED

INTRODUCING JEREMY GIVENS, 32

Jeremy is a graduate of Bowie State University with a dual degree in Economics; and Banking and Finance. He is also a graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in Baltimore, Maryland.

Jeremy works as a Decision Support Senior Financial Analyst for Johns Hopkins Hospital.

As the Vice President of Programs for the 100 Black Men of Maryland he is responsible for training mentors, and developing programmatic ideas that enhance the development of their protégés. In addition, he oversees the 100 Black Men of Maryland Collegiate chapter to facilitate the continued growth and maturation of collegiate members.

Favorite quote: As iron sharpens iron; so one man sharpens another. Proverbs 27:17

Hobbies: Hiking, college basketball, and whiskey collecting.