In 2014, Johnson battled breast cancer, and WON! A true testament to her faith in God, & dedication, Johnson has never been one to give up and proved that no matter the circumstances, she would prevail.

In 2016, Johnson faced another setback when her husband, friend, and business partner Devan suddenly passed away. After taking an uppercut from cancer, this tragic event seemed like a cruel gut punch. Despite the hardship, Johnson did not waver, and as she's always done she leaned into God which allowed her to flourish amongst all the pain.

Kimberly also speaks to audiences as the keynote about being a breast cancer thriver.

She educates and informs her audience about the importance of their bodies, health, and wellness.

She is a powerful motivational speaker, inspiring and encouraging others teaching that "Life can and will go on and it will be amazing despite what the past looked like. Your past does not have to dictate your future."

She channeled her adversity into writing, releasing her first book in 2017, Walking Without My Cane, a life enrichment, motivational story of triumph, love, faith, and strength. Kimberly's second book, Walking Unscripted, is set to release in 2020

She leads life coaching sessions through her PUSH course. She also teaches through her Moment By Moment: The Pivotal P.U.S.H Workshop and has her own podcast, Unleashing the Power of Greatness.
